

Summer Painting Workshop in Cushing, Maine with Elizabeth O'Reilly

JULY 18 – 24, 2021

A 5-day workshop will be conducted in Cushing, Maine. Cushing is on the water and situated fifteen minutes drive from Thomaston and thirty minutes drive from Rockland. The workshop will be based at 22 Kirby Lane, off of Hathorn Point Road which culminates at The Olson House. The house and deck overlook the historic and scenic St. George River. Painting sites include the infamous garden of Leslie Land, and the blueberry fields of local artist Melanie Essex. There will be an informal meet and greet at Kirby Lane on Sunday, July 18th at 5:00pm. The workshop includes demonstrations and will focus on composition, color and issues related to painting. Oil, watercolor and acrylic mediums are all welcome.

Elizabeth O'Reilly exhibits in New York City and internationally. Her paintings are included in museums, corporate and private collections. Teaching credits include the National Academy School, Parsons School of Design and The New York School of the Arts. www.ELIZABETHOREILLY.com

Approximately five hours drive from New York City, Cushing is easily reached by car. The Concord bus stops at Rockland Northbound and at Thomaston Southbound. The workshop is best accessed by car. Cushing and Thomaston are well served with AirBnB, and Rockland has several hotels and restaurants.
